

Ysgol Nefyn - October 2009

We welcome students who are here this term

Manon Roberts - Coleg Meirion Dwyfor - Mondays and Tuesdays

Rebeca Louise Jones - Coleg Meirion Dwyfor - Thursdays and Fridays

Gwyneth Williams - Hyfforddiant Gwynedd - every day

Hayley Jane Griffith - Bangor University - Yr2 and Yr3

Robert Parkison - Bangor University - Yr 4.

Once again this year Reverend Robert Roberts and Anti Nia join us for our services.

Mark Whincup - 'Don't Touch - Say' visited the school and advised us to keep away from drugs.

The pupils of Year 5 are already looking forward to visiting Mr Gwyndaf Jones' farm during the Spring Term. (Mrs Williams spent a day on the farm recently).

Anti Lis (a Police member) visited the school and talked with the pupils of Year 5 about looking after the community.

A walk around Nefyn was organised by Anti Lis and the Town Councillor Llinos Mêrks, the pupils were encouraged to notice if they look after the town.

Anti Lis visited the school before the end of the month to discuss the dangers of Halloween activities and how to respect elderly residents at this time.

Year 6 pupils travelled to Cae'r Gors, Rhosgadfan to learn about the author Kate Roberts and Year 4 pupils visited Caernarfon Castle as part of their Historical Studies.

We would like to thank Yncl John who came to talk to the pupils of Year 5 about bee keeping.

- During the `British Food Fortnight` we were very busy*
- . Sian Davies from South Caernarfon Creameries came to talk to the pupils of Year 6 about the produce that is being made at the Creamery. The Pupils were given the opportunity to taste `Monteray Jack` cheese.*
 - . Year 6 pupils performed a service about `Food` to The Pensioners` Club` at The Ganolfan.*
 - . The pupils of Year 4 visited the Londis Shop in Nefyn and were shown how Mr Elfed Roberts and the staff prepare hot meals, meats and sandwiches to be sold at the shop.*
 - . The pupils of Years 1 and 2 picked raspberries from the school garden and used the fruits for cooking.*

Yncl Dilwyn from The Archives in Caernarfon brought photographs of Nefyn in the past when he came to talk to Year 5 pupils.
